Fred Hansen Elected New Jaycee President

Last Thursday night, according to Junior Chamber of Commerce officials, saw the most hotly contested election of officers they've ever had, when the Jaycees elected Fred Hansen of Percy Realty as their new president at the dinner meeting held at Club Alondra.

FRED HANSEN

Chuck Herren of Standard Oil was elected first vice-president, and Nolan Stuckey of Central Mutual Insurance, second vice-president.

Dale Stanton was elected as stage director; Lew Blake, office manager of Whittlesey Motors, secretary; Phil Lissman, CPA for Charles Woodcock, treasurer, and named as directors were Harold Rapstad, John Wild, and Vern Lovelady.

Rose Sarukian Given Roybal Campaign Post

Miss Rose Sarukian, of 17930 Crenshaw boulevard, has been named campaign coordinator for Ed Roybal in the Sixteenth assembly district. Roybal is the endorsed Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

Miss Sarukian will supply all headquarters with campaign materials. She may be reached at the Torrance Democratic headquarters, 140 South Sartori, FA. 8-5679.

"Ed Roybal," Miss Sarukian declared, "for three successive times has been overwhelmingly elected city councilman for the Ninth district of Los Angeles. He is a defender of individual liberty and a strong supporter of our democratic traditions and ideals."

Miss Sarukian has been active in the Torrance Democrats for two years. She has been a delegate to the state and county convention. Miss Sarukian was active in the "Dime-a-Day for Democracy" campaign. She is a member of the Sixty-eighth assembly district Democratic council and a former member of the executive board.

THANK YOU...
As a candidate for re-election to the office of County Assessor I find myself running without opposition. Nevertheless I wish to express to the people of Los Angeles County my deep appreciation for their confidence, and to assure them of my continued determination, as their public servant, to merit it always.
Thank you very much.
